Ministry Journey

Global One80 is a multicultural leadership and community development organization modeled around the life of Jesus.

We come alongside devoted and committed leaders in their various stages of their leadership journey to impact communities with the Gospel of Jesus.

We empower our leaders by:

IDENTIFYING emerging and exponential leaders who are eager to influence their communities. They inspire those around them by building relationships and listening to community needs.

INVESTING in them to sharpen their God-given potential by providing them with opportunities to grow and advance as leaders.

Helping IMPLEMENT their vision for impact initiative planning with the support of donors who believe in their vision. They establish initiatives that are church and/or socially focused.

Together we can make a difference by helping bring the hope of Jesus to more people. The task is too large to do alone; we need partners who will empower passionate leaders to (transform/ influence) communities with the Gospel, one life at a time.

Rogelio is an experienced missionary, church planter and co-founder of the School of Missions and Church Planting, located in Cordoba, Argentina. Rogelio has accumulated more than 40 years of service in training and coaching leaders in his native Argentina with the objective of preparing them for the Great Commission.

Rogelio's uninterrupted experience in small groups began in 1975 as part of his seminary training and a small church, coupled with his accompaniment of churches that wanted to mobilize to support cross-cultural missions from Argentina.

Since 1982, Rogelio is dedicated to train pastors and workers for church planting. In 2001, alongside with his partner Marcelo Abel, he created EMPI (School of Church Planting Missionaries) as a supplement to the CCMT (Center for the Training of Transcultural Missionaries) which operates on the same campus in Argentina.

In 1987, Rogelio became responsible for missions in the church, which today is the one that has sent more cross-cultural missionaries within the Assemblies of God from Mexico to Tierra del Fuego. From 120 people, more than 150 people left and simultaneously we planted dozens of new congregations.

With the birth of EMPI in 2001, the mega church "Cita con la Vida" asked him to coordinate the introduction of small groups, plant new churches and begin a mobilization process that leads the congregation to pray and give for missions. This ministry raised attendance from 3200 to 22,000.

From two home groups opened in February 2001, it grew to 1100, and 55 new churches recognized.

Currently he accompanies the development of the Cita Missionary Academy, which aims to train self-supporting missionaries with their professions, businesses and trades. All of them have specific geographical callings: from Korea to England, passing through Africa and Asia.

Rogelio lives in his own house. He still lives with his 28 year old son who has just finished the EMPI and is working to raise the money to do the CCMT because he wants to be a cross-cultural missionary. They do not own a car.

God continues to surprise them, as a family, in terms of creativity in meeting basic needs and even some desires as a grandfather of six young grandchildren.
