FOCUS

Eduardo is the pastor of La Piedra Angular Ministries, a charitable organization called Sulam el Ascenso in Mexico. He also serves on the board of the missionary agency PIMEX and is an advisor to the municipal commission for the prevention of violence.

Together with his wife Miriam, Eduardo has created an Academy of Arts, Crafts, and Human Development as a tool to attract and assist children and young people with workshops in music, theater, painting, saddlery, dance, and other activities, all with psychological and spiritual accompaniment.

JOURNEY

Eduardo was born in the city of Delicias, Chihuahua, Mexico, on April 21, 1972. He was raised along with his siblings Paty and Luis by his mother Rosa in the absence of his father Salvador because of a marital separation.

At the age of 13, still without knowing Jesus as his Savior or having any knowledge of the Bible or the existence of Christian churches, a North American missionary told him when he saw him, "You are going to be a pastor." That strange and disconcerting word remained in his mind for the rest of his life. At the age of 16, he had an encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ in a small church in the city of Chihuahua, where he met his wife and lifelong ministry partner, Miriam. Together, they served in their church and led youth ministries in their church and among the Christian youth of the city.

From 1990 to 1995, he began his first theological studies at the Bible Institute. Years later, he completed his bachelor's and master's degrees in pastoral theology. In April 1995, Miriam and Eduardo got married, and in December of that same year, they began their ministry as pastors in a newly founded church.

In 2007, already in the midst of their ministry, a prophetess in Costa Rica gave them a word when she saw them in a vision ministering to many children, even though they have no children.

As a result, the Holy Spirit led them to prepare themselves professionally. Eduardo studied a degree in sociology, and Miriam studied a degree in psychology.

In 2010, they began the formation of a charitable organization to prevent the violence suffered by children and young people in their families and communities. Since then, in addition to pastoring their congregation, they have developed projects in alliance with government institutions, foundations, and their own resources.

Global One80 is a multicultural leadership and community development organization modeled around the life of Jesus. We come alongside devoted and committed leaders in their various stages of their leadership journey to impact communities with the Gospel of Jesus. We empower our leaders by:

- IDENTIFYING emerging and exponential leaders who are eager to influence their communities. They inspire those around them by building relationships and listening to community needs.
- INVESTING in them to sharpen their God-given potential by providing them with opportunities to grow and advance as leaders.
- Helping IMPLEMENT their vision for impact initiative planning with the support of donors who believe in their vision. They establish initiatives that are church and/or socially focused.

Together we can make a difference by helping bring the hope of Jesus to more people. The task is too large to do alone; we need partners who will empower passionate leaders to (transform/ influence) communities with the Gospel, one life at a time.
